Viewing Your Images

After your photo session you'll be dying to see your images for the first time! After each session you will be given a date of when your images will be ready to view. Typically it is 1-2 weeks. Once they are ready you will receive an email inviting you to view all of your images on kvphotoonline.com. After viewing the images, you'll have an opportunity to select your favorites, place a print order, give your photographer feedback, and most importantly share your images with friends and family.

Pricing and Payment

Half of your package is due the day of your first session, the second half is due before the 9 month session. Payments can be made with either cash or check. If you would like to order prints of your session you can do so on kvphotoonline.com via credit/debit card or using PayPal. If you place an order of $250 or more you will receive a free high resolution disc of all your images.

High resolution photo discs are not included with the packages.
Discs can be purchased for $125 (normally $250 without a package)
